Balloon Handler

Learn the ropes and fly your assigned balloon safely down the Parade route! You will be assigned a balloon and help get the giant, helium filled balloon down the Parade route by holding on to a rope and following detailed instructions from your Balloon Captain. You will assist with inflation and deflation of balloon. This position will report to assigned Balloon Captain. Balloon school is required on October 22 at 9:00 AM & 12 PM (if you have not attended in 2020 or 2021). Physically Demanding.

Band Marshal

Boom shuck-a-luck-ah! You will be assigned to a marching band and assist band directors and Super Marshals by keeping the place and pace of your band in the Parade. You will walk along side of your band as the designated host from Parade start to finish and monitor that only designated Parade participants march alongside the band. This position reports to the Band Marshal Captain.

Banner Carrier

Carry on and be the first to introduce your assigned unit to the Parade route! You will lead the way for your unit with sponsor provided signage. Smile and wave as you carry your banner down the route. You will also work with the Super Marshals and help with pacing of the Parade. This position reports to the Banner Carrier Captain.

Big Head Corps Crew Handler

Be a head above the rest as you help the Big Head Corps with their Parade day needs. You will assist the Big Head Corps members with getting into their papier-mâché heads, costumes, and prepared for photos. Position reports to the Captain of Big Head Corps. This position does not walk down Parade route in a papier-mâché head but wears a clown costume down the route.

Costumed Marcher

Broadway Bound! Bring sparkles and magic to Woodward Avenue as a themed character in The Parade. You will be assigned a unit in the Parade with a matching costume to go along with it. You need to be someone who is happy, smiley and likes to wave a lot! You will be required to learn simple choreography. This position walks in the Parade and does not ride on any floats.

Dispersal Crew

Help the Parade find its way home. March the bands to their buses, send the floats back home, direct the balloons back, and send marchers on their way. You are responsible for directing units of the Parade to designated areas for departure from Parade. This position reports to the Dispersal Captain. Must have a take charge attitude.

Equestrian Escort

Wanted: Super-Pooper-Scoopers! Keep the Parade route sparkling as you accompany majestic equestrian units down Woodward. You must be willing to wave, smile and have a good time! This position reports to the Equestrian Escort Captain. You will be assigned a costume to wear.

Grandstand Usher

The best place to view the Parade on Parade morning! Assist with coordinating and locating seats in the Parade's grandstand seating for spectators, sponsors and special guests and ensure that only ticketed guests are in the grandstands. You will also assist with ticket taking as necessary.

This position reports to Grandstand Usher Captain. Must be able to stand in one location for long period of time.

Sitting in Grandstands is not permitted.

Parade Captain

The Parade Captains are the all-star volunteers who help with training and directing their fellow volunteers on Parade day. These positions are pre-assigned. Please select if you have been pre-assigned as Captain for Banner Carrier, Balloons, Dispersal, Pit Crew, Equestrian Escort, Band, Grandstands, Unit Marshal, VIP Logistics, Shuttle, Super Marshal, Breakfasts or Assembly. If you are not a Captain, but interested in a volunteer leadership role in the Parade, then let us know at volunteers@theparade.org!

Parade Pit Crew (Float Spotter, Driver or Animator)

Join the Parade Pit Crew! You will be assigned as a Spotter, Driver or Animator depending on your experience, ability and successful completion of Float Driving School on Oct. 22. You will be responsible for moving a float and/or support vehicle from The Parade Company studio to Woodward Avenue during roll-out, down the Parade route and safely return the float back to the Parade studio after the Parade is over.

- Spotter: Be in charge of a float as you walk the Parade route and help guide your assigned float back to the Parade Studio on Parade Day. You must be good with directions, comfortable on a hand-held radio and able to walk the Parade route. You must also be available for roll-out.
- Driver: Drive a tow vehicle that pulls a float down the Parade route. You must be available for roll-out and able to drive your float back to the Parade studio after the Parade is over. You may also have the opportunity to drive a support vehicle or sound mule in the Parade.
- Animator: Bring the floats to life and fans to their feet! You will either manually operate or check motors on floats to make them shake, rattle and roll as they move down the Parade route. An animator is not required to stay with a float to bring it back to the studio.

This position reports to the Pit Crew Captains. A valid driver's license and good driving record is required. This position is physically demanding. You MUST be able to walk the Parade route. Attendance at Float Driving School is mandatory on October 22. Float School lasts about a half hour.

At Float Driving School, you will learn the in's & out's of navigating our floats. You will fill out a form requesting your position of Driver, Spotter or Animator. Most requests are honored but positions are filled as needed. Anyone who can help out with moving the floats from the Parade studio to Woodward during Roll Out on Wednesday at 11AM, November 23 would be most appreciated.
